1, 2, 3, GO!

For JK to Grade 3

Our creative movement workshop is an exploration of body language, space, numbers and themes. Children go on a journey into the mathematical world that underpins movements and the use of space.

60 minutes in length

Circles, Squares and Triangles

For Grades 4-6

Circles, Squares and Triangles is an action packed class of creative energy which produces dance steps and shapes. This workshop will also focus on problem solving and dance vocabulary building.

60 minutes in length

All workshops are accompanied by a musician and include some lesson time about the musical instruments being played. We can come to your school and work in one of your large spaces OR you and your students can come to The School of Dance and learn more about the fascinating world of dance!

About The School of Dance

Located at 200 Crichton Street in Ottawa, The School of Dance has an international reputation as a centre for excellence in arts education. Founded in 1978 by Merrilee Hodgins and Joyce Shietze, The School offers professional classes in Ballet and Contemporary Dance, professional development activities for teachers, as well as leisure and recreational programmes for adults and children. Graduates of The School of Dance are performing with companies world-wide.

Each year The School touches the lives of over 70,000 Ontarians with special outreach programmes including DragonFly®, for learners with Down syndrome, Boys Only! classes, Dancing in the Street, and DanceONTour®, a school touring programme designed to inspire interest in the arts.

The School of Dance is registered as a private career college under the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005. The Contemporary Dance Programme, under the direction of Sylvie Desrosiers, is approved as a vocational training programme under the Private Career Colleges Act, 2005. The School of Dance is a Canadian, not-for-profit, charitable institution celebrating its 39th season in Ottawa.
